Forensic Re-entry Survey 2011

1. What do you like about the services, programs or assistance you receive?

- To tell you the truth, it's been a living hell nightmare since the transition of Dan Gross to Francisco Fernandez as new House Manager. I would like a house manager that is respectful to me and makes me feel comfortable in my home, that's all I had simply wanted.
- Knowledge of other services I wasn't aware of.
- The employees.
- The staff (Bill) is very helpful and easy to communicate with.
- What I've gained from the services.
- I was given a job w/ TMHA. I like the classes. I appreciate the support I receive here at TMHA and transportation and ideas. I have gotten closer to my family. I am aware of a lot more situations around me. I love that there is someone here everyday. It feels secure. I like that there are classes to take in this program. I like that there is someone to talk to often and transportation.
